11	Blatchington Mill's allotment and sensory garden A school allotment and sensory garden will be developed, aimed at engaging vulnerable students within the school community (such as special educational needs and disabilities, English as an additional language, students with behavioural, emotional and social difficulties). This is a proactive, creative and energetic way to engage these students while maintaining links to the National Curriculum, through a cross-curricular approach to science, maths, literacy, citizenship, business/economics and geography as well as the PSHE curriculum. The space will also provide opportunity for an outdoor classroom and Mindfulness sessions. The allotment and garden will provide multi-sensory experiences exposing students to different materials, environments and temperatures through growing, planning, and cooking, as well as establishing a small enterprise project. www.blatchingtonmill.org.uk
12	Blueprint 22 online guide Young people (aged 16 - 25) will be supported to develop, design and publish a local online guide to places that young people enjoy in the city called 'Here 4 U'. The project will include at least 30 young people who identify as socially isolated, lacking in confidence and having mental health issues related to gender identity and sexuality. Over 16 weeks the young people will meet with Blueprint 22 project workers for one-to-one support, workshops, visits and interviews. At the end of the project a celebration will be held including a photo display. www.blueprint22.org.uk/homepage-2
13	BMEYPP activities A broad range of initiatives aimed at young people from BME communities, including walk and talk sessions around the city (exploring new places, highlighting places of support), Black History tours, taster opportunities for outdoor pursuits including climbing and abseiling, cooking and nutrition sessions, mother and daughter wellbeing sessions, young parent sessions. www.bmeypp.org.uk
14	Bookchat groups for current and recently bereaved carers Three libraries will host monthly Bookchat sessions to support up to 36 current and recently bereaved carers. The participants will be invited to attend sessions via carers' organisations. An experienced facilitator will run the Bookchat groups where they will read and discuss a range of literature, from stories and poetry to song lyrics and graphic novels. Many carers feel isolated and unconnected to their local community. The groups will give participants the opportunity to

	share experiences in a supportive group and to benefit from taking a step back from their own lives and seeing the world from different perspectives. www.brighton-hove.gov.uk/content/leisure-and-libraries/libraries/whats-going-your-library
15	Brighton & Hove Food Partnership - information & advice The creation of a one-stop-shop for people who are interested in green and growing projects and other community food activity. With over 70 projects offering open workdays & activities, Food Partnership staff will offer advice sessions in person or over the phone to help people find the best experience for them. Local and national evidence shows gardens can improve wellbeing, health, and skills for a wide range of client groups. The scheme will accept self-referrals and referrals from GP surgeries and other health settings. Call 01273 431716 or email info@bhfood.org.uk http://bhfood.org.uk
16	Brighton Oasis staff wellbeing programme A staff wellbeing programme for people who are working with people who are affected by substance misuse. The programme will include clinical supervision, mindfulness workshops and Alexander Technique Workshops. www.oasisproject.org.uk

Followed by supported workshop time for the group, led by Survivors Network trained volunteers. www.survivorsnetwork.org.uk
18	City Academy Whitehawk ‘The Flourishing Families Programme` will bring together families to break down isolation, to provide an opportunity to try something new and ensure the facilities benefit the whole community. Amongst the activities there are plans to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clear a school garden following three years of neglect, especially aimed at dads; • Establish a Family Growing & Outdoor Games Club for those families without a garden; • Set up a Bounce! for babies and also under-5s - a soft play session; • Cooking for mums with young children; • Deliver outdoor dads and children's activities in school holidays, including bushcraft and outdoor cooking; • Family fun club once a month bringing families together through food. www.whitehawkacademy.ccb.ac.uk/brighton-hove/primary/whitehawk

19	Confidence for girls CORE will be providing a programme of school based groups for girls in year 7 and 8, aiming to improve levels of confidence, optimism, resilience and esteem. There will be up to 12 girls in each group, the group will run for 8 weeks and there will be three per academic year. We will also do one to one follow up sessions with six girls per academic year who need more support around these issues. email: corebrighton@gmail.com https://corebrighton.wordpress.com
20	Counselling for new mothers 'Mummyshock' 10 week counselling group for new mothers who are vulnerable to postnatal depression and anxiety. Led by qualified counsellor from Release Counselling. Topic based sessions will include identity, bonding & attachment, tips for emotional wellbeing; there will also be plenty of time for sharing experiences. www.releaseforwomen.org.uk email: ellen@releaseforwomen.org.uk
21	Courses for parent carers of children with special needs or disabilities Amaze Brighton will be holding two 'Looking After You' courses for parent carers of children with special educational needs and disabilities: one for parent carers of babies and under 5s with a recent diagnosis and the other for older parent carers and grandparent carers. Courses will provide a supportive environment where parent carers can share experiences with others in a similar situation and learn relaxation and resilience building techniques aimed at improving their mental health and wellbeing. We will also produce resources that can be downloaded from the Amaze website so that many more parent carers can benefit from the project. www.amazebrighton.org.uk
22	Distressed art The creation of a graphic novel or comic book about young people's experiences of mental health, created by young people aged 11 -18. The project will be facilitated by Art in Mind, a group of young people aged 16-25 who are recovering from mental health issues. The novel will be used as a resource to help other young people living with mental health issues and isolation, providing advice for young people as well as teachers and parents. It will be digitally disseminated. www.artinmind.co.uk
23	Due East taster activities A practical year-long challenge, based around the Five Ways to Wellbeing, for people living in East Brighton (Whitehawk, Manor Farm and Bristol Estate neighbourhoods). Residents will have opportunities to try out different activities and services and to recommend those they like best. At the heart of the project is the small, bite-sized steps taken in behaviour and

	attitude change based on practical, grassroots process celebrating the many practical things people can do for themselves to improve their wellbeing. www.dueeast.org.uk
24	Friends, Families and Travellers This project is linked with the Moulsecoomb Forest Garden, mainly aimed at 10-15 young Traveller men, providing skills workshops for example on cookery, bushcraft, carpentry. These will provide opportunities for learning, education and employment as well as building confidence, motivation and self-esteem. www.gypsy-traveller.org email: fft@gypsy-traveller.org
25	Five Ways Live in the Workplace Employees at five large workplaces will be offered an opportunity to learn more about the Five Ways to Wellbeing in the workplace setting, using a Human Library (lived experience) approach. Volunteers will offer 1:1 interviews with employees, lasting about 10 - 15 minutes. www.albioninthecommunity.org.uk
26	Food and cooking project for people with learning disabilities Brighton & Hove Food Partnership will be supporting up to 30 people with learning disabilities to learn more about food choices and cooking. Activities will include a dinner club with discussions, outings to farms, supermarkets and restaurants. Participants will have the choice to submit their own food reviews to a Good Food Guide. www.bhfood.org.uk
27	FortuneCat Productions An innovative art project - The Cat's Kiosk. This interactive artwork explores the Five Ways to Wellbeing through an installation in a phone box. www.fortunecatproductions.com
28	Fun with babe Honeycroft's courses encourage successful interaction between parents and their baby through baby massage, music, art, storytelling and playing together to encourage present and future development. The project will be open to 72 parents (36 babies) and will be delivered as `roll on roll off` so that participants can choose workshops to suit their needs. The courses will provide time for reflection, building confidence and emotional wellbeing, as well as opportunities for supporting one another, gaining information and a safe play environment. Anyone interested can either email: marion.silsby@gmail.com or phone 01273 220323 to book a place.

42	Music on a dementia ward Rhythmix forms partnerships with organisations to help vulnerable and excluded people to make music, helping them to express themselves, gain confidence and make positive changes in their lives. This particular project will see Rhythmix form a new partnership with BSUH Emerald ward (Dementia) as part of their Music in Healthcare programme, Wishing Well. For the next 20 weeks, two musicians in healthcare will be visiting Emerald Ward, bringing live interactive music making right to patients' bedsides to improve wellbeing and reduce the negative impact of hospitalisation for people with dementia. The musicians will use acoustic instruments, voices, and ipads and a range of reminiscence repertoire and creative improvisation to interact with patients or to surround them in soothing familiar sounds that bring the outside world into the hospital. Rhythmix will encourage families/ carers to also participate and will be working with a team of Occupational

	Therapists to evaluate the work. www.wishingwellmusic.org.uk
43	Narrative workshops at a GP surgery The workshops are designed to help staff and patients deal with significant life events using reflective writing, guided conversation, group discussions, reading and autobiographical exercises. These techniques have been proven to have similar effects to meditation in helping to focus the mind, calm emotions and release tensions. Eighteen workshops will run for up to 12 people. www.wellbeing-centre.org
44	Resilience courses at the Recovery College Two resilience courses within the Recovery College (hosted by Southdown Housing) for people with mental health issues: one for older adults, one for younger people aged 26 - 35. The courses will build on the themes of the Five Ways and will include opportunities to put resilient habits into practice. People who use our services have expressed a wish for a course on happiness and resilience, including healthy relationships. In September 2015, a showcase event will offer taster sessions and publicise the outcomes of the courses. www.southdownhousing.org/mental-health-recovery/brighton-hove-recovery-college
45	Refugee radio Arts therapy for adult refugees, asylum seekers and vulnerable migrants, especially those with mental health issues such as depression and PTSD. 53	Touched Theatre Weekly art workshops for 11-17 year olds who are experiencing mental health problems, exploring the theme 'A Place of Safety'. Participants will create an art installation which will then be made available for the public as part of B.Fest. The installation will include sound players, art in boxes, videos and sculpture and will resemble a teenager's bedroom. www.touchedtheatre.co.uk/wordpress
54	Unemployed families project Brighton Unemployed Centre Families Project will be providing a programme of immediate support for people in crisis due to multiple disadvantage, including debt, poverty, poor mental and/or physical health, homelessness. A family support worker will offer free hot vegan lunch; time with a welfare advice worker and temporary housing worker; referral to other agencies for ongoing support. Volunteers, speaking a wide range of languages, will support the worker. The service will run five days a week for 50 weeks. www.bucfp.org email: info@bucfp.org
55	University of Brighton A student wall will be created by the University of Brighton Student Union, to gather evidence on mental wellbeing and mental health. Trained student staff will be used, and students will be signposted to further help with mental wellbeing issues. Liberation groups (disabled, LGBTQ+, BME, women, carers) will be promoted and supported. www.brightonsu.com
56	Urban art Grassroots Suicide Prevention will be supporting the creation of urban art such as graffiti and electric light boxes by people with lived experience of mental health issues and members of the local community. The art will be used to promote the suicide prevention app 'Stay Alive'. A short film will be produced that captures the creation of the artworks. This will be used to raise awareness of suicide prevention. www.prevent-suicide.org.uk
57	Varndean School – alternative curriculum A range of activities will be provided for vulnerable young people at school, including group and one to one work. These activities will include kick-boxing at SAMA Karate, angling through the Angling4life programme and other outdoor adventure activities, including forest school activities. These will help young people manage their confidence and frustrations through activities that develop an emotional connection with the environment. www.varndean.co.uk

58	Varndean School – outdoor classroom Pupils will work with volunteers from Age UK, a number of church groups and other organisations representing older people, to establish the garden and learn about food production. In return the pupils will educate the volunteers about social networking, Skype, Facebook and other digital media, to enable them to keep in better touch with family and friends. The project will be fully designed by both the school participants and the volunteers. www.varndean.co.uk
59	Women’s arts programme Brighton Women's Centre supports women with vulnerabilities to overcome social isolation, improve their mental health and emotional resilience, develop safe and trusting relationships, and build compassion and self-confidence. This project will introduce a programme of arts-based empowering activities including sound therapy, dance movement psychotherapy and interactive forum theatre workshops for up to 50 women. www.womenscentre.org.uk
60	YMCA Downslink Group allotment in Portslade YMCA Downslink houses 90 homeless 16-25 year olds across the Brighton & Hove area, supporting them to move on positively with skills to live independent lives. Over the last year they have developed an allotment space in Portslade and wish to replicate this across their supported housing projects by enabling 55 young people to renovate the gardens into beautiful and positive spaces including mini allotments. The aim is also to have `food champions` with peer-to-peer support in gardening and cooking. This will develop skills and increase self-esteem in disengaged young people. http://www.ymcadlg.org/
61	YMCA Downslink Group - mindfulness sessions for staff Initial lunchtime taster sessions, followed by weekly drop-in lunchtime sessions, will be offered to staff twice a week. The sessions will be led by a staff member, trained as a mindfulness practitioner. The course will link to introduction of a Trauma Informed approach to young clients, as both approaches look at interaction between mind and body, and encourage reflection, awareness and choice. www.ymcadlg.org
