

OUT & ABOUT MUSIC

Come and enjoy some of the city's wonderful choirs

- 2pm Rainbow Chorus (Ann St)
- 4.15pm The cast from the Emporium pantomime Cinders (Emporium)
- 4.45pm We-Bop choir (Circus Parade)
- 5.45pm We-Bop sing again in the Emporium before the official launch of the art installations

AND MORE....

Join local historian and storyteller Rose Collis for an illuminating and entertaining walk through the colourful past of London Road. Meet outside the Velo café on the Level at 2.15 and 4.15

Also at the beautifully restored Level, between 2pm and 4pm, for a special opening of the People's History of the Level exhibition in the MacLaren Pavilion. Make sure to see the public artwork in at the intersection of the paths created by the Brighton based designer Sarah Arnett and Graphic Relief.

Wander over to the magical drawing cart, the Cabinet of Wonder, on Circus Parade for free pop up drawing lessons with costumed life models. Drawing materials are provided free. The sessions will be held by Draw and will take place between 2pm and 5pm.

HisBe is a brand new ethical supermarket opening its doors for the first time. It stands for How It Should Be and will sell affordable sustainable and local food and produce.

Don't forget the free Toy Hacking workshops upstairs at Circus Circus between 2pm and 4pm.

SHINE On London Road

Take a fresh look at London Road. A quiet revolution is underway with new venues and fresh ideas popping up all over the area.

ART INSTALLATIONS

Shine On London Road invited artists to provide an alternative to off the shelf Christmas lights. Come and enjoy these new artworks in place until the 5th January 2014.

reCyculture - Night Bikes

Location : World's End pub

Five glowing bicycles appear from a rooftop on London Rd, frozen in mid-leap. A large & bold, sculptural installation, which puts the bicycle at the heart of the new London Rd.

Exploring Senses - CommuniToys

Location: Ann St

The artists have been working with local young people have been turning displaced and rejected toys into new fantastical creations and 3D animations projected onto the street.

Digital Funfair - Light Hearted

Location: Circus Parade

Walk under the kissing statue, hold on the handrails, grab a stranger or the person you love, make a connection and light up the giant heart.

Paul Matosic -Trees

Location: Beacon Homestore window

Polystyrene packaging is the ultimate use once and throw away by-product especially at this time of year. We should think about how we can reuse it - it makes excellent soil conditioner for planting.

Karen Tilley and Esther Springett - The London Road Jingle

Locations: Duke of Yorks, Richer Sounds, Barclays

A tapestry of sounds in celebration of London Road at Christmas time featuring a vibrant mix of individuals and community groups to present you with a jingle with a difference.

SATURDAY 7 DECEMBER 2PM - 6PM

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

SATURDAY 7 DECEMBER 2PM - 6PM

London Road celebrates Small Business Saturday with an afternoon of events to shine a light on this vibrant part of the city and highlight the changes taking place behind the scenes.

ARTIST TALKS

Moksha Caffe, 4-5 York Place

Come and meet the artists involved in a range of projects transforming London Road

2pm - CiCi Blumstein. - Fusebox and Re:create

CiCi is an installation artist, film-maker and choreographer and the first artist in residence at Fusebox. She will talk about her project there: 'Space Encoders - When frogs go digital'.

3pm - Charley Rallings - Brighton Mural project & Elder Place improvements

Charley is planning a major Brighton Mural project for Elder Place, working with some of the city's finest graffiti artists, the city council's Environmental Improvement team and the London Road LAT.

4pm - Lucy Williams. Lucid Design. - Open Market Gateway

The public artists for the Open Market have designed beautiful arched gateways with letters inspired by market stalls and the fairground filled with delicate quilling realised in the bright colours of the pier and the high street.

5pm - Jon Mills Ghost Train

Jon is one of the city's most celebrated public artists and works with metal to produce wonderful sculptural objects from the hand-held to the enormous. His Ghost Train has just been installed at the viaduct.

Artist Beccy McCray will be the artist in residence in Onca in January. Find her at her 'punch-point' between 3.30pm and 4.30pm to become part of the making of the installation.

VENUES

ONCA

14 St George's Place

ONCA is only one year old and is already well known for its high-quality, planet-friendly projects.

The current exhibition is Dirty Beach who present TruCost Super M-Art: An installation that recreates and subverts the supermarket environment to display found plastics collected from UK beaches. There is also a special installation decorating the trees opposite using brightly coloured found plastics.

ONE-EYED JACKS

28 York Place

One Eyed jacks is a photography gallery run by writer, photographer and curator Matt Henry. The current exhibition is THURSDAY by British art and fashion photographer Nadia Lee Cohen who will be in store all afternoon to answer your questions.

PHOENIX GALLERY

10-14 Waterloo Place

Phoenix is the largest artist led studio group in the south east providing affordable art studios for its members alongside workshops, exhibitions and events for the general public.

Art Junky is the indoor market that combines a love for quirky jumble sale culture with local artistic talent, showcasing over 50 stalls of unique and affordable artwork! Open from 11am to 5pm.

EMPORIUM

88 London Road

The city's newest theatre venue presents original theatre, music and events in the fabulous setting of a reclaimed church hall. There is also a homely café bar with live music open day and night. Look out for the stars from their new pantomime 'Cinders' who will be popping up between their matinee and evening performances.

FABRIVAN

26 Elder Place (behind London Rd)

Fabrivan are a maker lab based in London Road who run workshops in 3D printing, stencils and laser cutting. Pop into their studio between 2pm and 6pm and make a copy of yourself in their body scanner.

FUSEBOX

New England House Level 4 North.

Fusebox run by Wired Sussex as part of Brighton & Hove city council's Re:create project which aims to provide creative entrepreneurs with the support, advice and resources they need to start new businesses. Open between 3pm and 5pm.

DUKE OF YORKS

Preston Circus

Still the oldest running cinema in the UK and also home to an exciting and innovative art-house and blockbuster programme of film and special events. On the day they are offering a members discount of £2 off the ticket price for any shows that day to anyone carrying a Shine On leaflet.

INFORMATION

There will be an information point at the bottom of Ann St from 2pm to 6pm.

www.brighton-hove.gov.uk/sbs arts@brighton-hove.gov.uk

Special thanks to London Road's own Same Sky for providing mentoring and production support to the Shine On artists and producing the launch event.

Thanks also to Joe Nichols and the Portas Town Team, Jon Pratty at Arts Council England SE, Richer Sounds, James at POD Lettings, British Heart Foundation, Costa, Barclays, Moksha, Beacon Homestore and the traders and residents of London Road