2 What is Small Business Rate Relief (SBRR)?
Small Business Rate Relief is available to businesses that occupy one property with a Rateable Value below £15,000, or more than one property where each additional property has a RV below £2,900 and the total RV across all properties is no more than £20,000.

If your RV is between £12,000 and £15,000, the percentage of rate relief decreases as the RV increases.

3 What is a Rateable Value (RV)?
The rateable value of a property is based on its annual rent in the open market. All non-domestic properties are normally revalued every five years, to make sure that changes in the property market are reflected in rates bills. The most recent revaluation was in 2017, using open market rents as at 1 April 2015.

4 What is the Multiplier?
The multiplier is set each year by central government and it is used in conjunction with your rateable value to work out your basic charge. In 2018/19 the standard multiplier is 49.3p. So if your rateable value is £20,000, your basic charge would be £9,860 (49.3p x £20,000). There's also a lower multiplier of 48p for occupied properties with a rateable value of less than £51,000. So if your rateable value is £20,000, your basic charge would be £9,600 (48p x £20,000).
