Children aged two to four

Q22

Do you have any children aged two, three or four?

(please select all that apply)

Yes aged two

Yes aged three or four

No

Free childcare

Two year olds from low income families, as well as those who are disabled or adopted from care, are entitled to 15 hours a week of free childcare from the term after their second birthday. All three and four year olds are also entitled to this, from the term after their third birthday. In addition three and four year olds whose parents are working are entitled to 30 hours a week of free childcare.

Q23

What best describes your position in relation to this childcare?

(please select one answer for each question)

Q24

If you are eligible for free childcare but do not use it, what is the reason? Please tick all that apply.

(please select all that apply)

I don't think that childcare is for me and my child

I prefer to have my child at home with me

I cannot find a childcare provider who will offer me the free hours

I receive help with the cost of childcare through Universal Credit/Working Tax Credit and so don't need to take up the free hours

Other, please give details below.

Does your child receive free childcare from more than one provider?

(please select one answer)

Yes

No

Q26a

What is the reason for using more than one provider? Please tick all that apply.

(please select all that apply)

I could not get all the free hours I was eligible for at my preferred provider

I like my child to experience different kinds of provision, for example home-based care as well as a nursery or pre-school

I use one provider as wraparound care for my main provider which is only open limited hours

Other, please give details below

What are the other reasons why you use more than one provider?
