• Advanced Stop Lines (ASLs) Cyclists should use ASLs where provided. They are designed to improve visibility and safety at junctions.

On the road – position yourself where you can be seen

• Watch out for vehicles turning left

• When turning right, look, signal and wait for a safe gap to cross

Junction safety