The Supplier undertakes to the Council to ensure that they maintain such insurance cover during the term of the Contract.
- 10.3. As and when reasonably required to do so, the Supplier shall provide the Council with documentary evidence that the insurance required under this clause 10 is in force and is being maintained.
11. CONFIDENTIALITY
 - 11.1. The Supplier shall keep in strict confidence all documents, information technical and/or commercial know-how, specifications, inventions, processes and initiatives which are of a confidential nature and have been disclosed to the Supplier by the Council or the Council's agents and any other confidential information concerning the Council's business or services which the Supplier may obtain or be made aware of, and the Supplier shall restrict disclosure of such confidential material to such of the Suppliers employees or agents as need to know the same for the purpose of discharging the Suppliers obligations to the Council and shall ensure that such employees or agents are subject to like obligations of confidentiality as bind the Supplier.
12. COUNCIL PROPERTY
 - 12.1. All property (including land and buildings), materials, equipment, tools, copyright, design rights or any other forms of intellectual property rights in all drawings, specifications and data supplied by the Council to the Supplier or not so supplied but used by the Supplier specifically in the manufacture or development of the Services shall at all times be and remain the Council's exclusive property but shall be held by the Supplier in safe custody at the Supplier's risk and maintained and kept in good condition by the Supplier until returned to the Council and shall not be disposed of other than in accordance with the Council's written instructions, nor shall such items be used otherwise than as authorised by the Council in writing.
13. TERMINATION
 - 13.1. The Council shall be entitled to cancel the Purchase Order or terminate the Contract in respect of all or part only of the Services by giving notice to the Supplier one month prior to delivery of the Services, in which event the Council shall not be liable for payment for Services not performed, loss of anticipated profits or any consequential loss.
 - 13.2. The Council shall be entitled to terminate the Contract immediately without liability if:
 - 13.2.1. the Supplier commits a material breach of any of the terms and conditions of the Contract;
 - 13.2.2. the Supplier has a bankruptcy order made against it or has made an arrangement with its creditors or otherwise takes the benefit of any statutory provision for the time being in force for the relief of insolvent debtors or (being a body corporate) has convened a meeting of creditors or enters into liquidation or has a receiver or an administrative receiver appointed or is the subject of similar procedures under the law of any other state or a resolution is passed or a petition presented to any court for the Supplier's winding up, or for the granting of an administration order, or any proceedings are commenced relating to the Supplier's insolvency or possible insolvency;
 - 13.2.3. the Supplier ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business;
 - 13.2.4. the Council reasonably apprehends that any of the events mentioned above are about to occur;
 - 13.2.5. in the Council's opinion the Supplier has abandoned the Contract; or
 - 13.2.6. the Supplier, their employee or anyone acting on their behalf corruptly offers, gives or agrees to give to anyone any inducement or reward in respect of this or any other Council contract (even if the Supplier does not know this has been done), or commits an offence under the Bribery Act 2010, Section 117(2) of the Local Government Act 1972 or as listed in regulation 57(1) of the Public Contracts Regulation 2015.
 - 13.3. Following termination under clause 13, without prejudice to any other rights, the Council may complete the Services or have them completed by a third party, using all materials, plant and equipment on the Premises belonging to the Supplier, and the Council shall not be liable to make any further payment to the Supplier until the Services have been completed in accordance with the requirements of the Contract, and shall be entitled to deduct from any amount due to the Supplier the costs incurred by the Council (including the Council's costs). If the total cost to the Council exceeds the amount (if any) due to the Supplier, the difference shall be recoverable by the Council from the Supplier.
14. SUBSTITUTE SUPPLIER
 - 14.1. The Council may engage a substitute Supplier if:
 - 14.1.1. the Supplier fails to deliver the Services within the timescales or standard set out in the Purchase Order and/or the Specification; or
 - 14.1.2. in the reasonable opinion of the Council, the Supplier has failed to allocate sufficient resources to perform the Services.
 - 14.2. Where the Council engages a substitute supplier, the Council must notify the Supplier in respect of the Supplier's failure and raise a Purchase Order with a substitute supplier of the Council's choice to supply the Services.
 - 14.3. Where the Council has notified the Supplier in accordance with clause 14.2 the Council may recover from the Supplier any costs, damages or expenses incurred by the Council because of the failure of the Supplier together with any costs or expenses over and above the amount which the Council had originally agreed to pay to the Supplier for the supply of the Services.
15. TUPE
 - 15.1. The parties acknowledge that upon the expiry or termination of the Contract, the provisions of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 (SI 2006/246) ("TUPE"), as amended may apply.
 - 15.2. The Supplier agrees to provide the Council with the Employee Liability Information set out in regulation 11(2) of TUPE and any other information reasonably required by the Council within 21 days of receipt of request.

Terms and Conditions for the Supply of Services.

- 15.3. The Supplier indemnifies the Council and any replacement provider for any inaccurate information provided as a result of the application of TUPE.
16. DATA PROTECTION
- 16.1. The Council shall be the Data Controller (as defined in the GDPR) and the Supplier shall be a Data Processor (as defined in the GDPR). The Data Processor must act only on the written instructions of the Council as Data Controller. The Supplier must only engage a sub Data Processor as a subcontractor with the prior written consent of the Council and under a written contract between the Data Processor and the sub Data Processor.
- 16.2. Both the Council as Data Controller and the Supplier as Data Processor shall maintain a record of the type of Personal Data (as defined in the GDPR) held and the reasons for processing it under the Contract.
- 16.3. The Supplier shall ensure that persons processing the Personal Data on their behalf are subject to a duty of confidence and do not disclose Personal Data to any third parties other than to its employees and authorised sub-contractors to whom such disclosure is reasonably necessary in order for the Supplier to supply the Services and/or Goods;
- 16.4. Where the Supplier processes Personal Data as a necessary part of supplying the Services and/or Goods, the Supplier shall take appropriate technical and organisational security measures to ensure the security of processing against unauthorised or unlawful processing of Personal Data and accidental loss or destruction of or damage to Personal Data and inform the Council, or on request supply written particulars of the measures taken.
- 16.5. The Supplier shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Council against all actions, claims, costs, damages, deductions, expenses losses and liabilities incurred by the Council as Data Controller in respect of any breach by the Supplier of its obligations under this Clause 16.
- 16.6. The Supplier as Data Processor must assist the Council as Data Controller in providing Subject Access (as defined in the GDPR) and allowing Data Subjects (as defined in the GDPR) to exercise their rights under the General Data Protection Regulation.
- 16.7. The Supplier as Data Processor must assist the Council as Data Controller in meeting its GDPR obligations in relation to the security of processing, the notification of Personal Data Breaches (as defined in the GDPR), and Data Protection Impact Assessments (as referred to in Article 35 of the GDPR).
- 16.8. The Supplier as Data Processor must submit to audits and inspections, provide the Council as Data Controller with whatever information it needs to ensure that the Supplier is meeting its Data Processor obligations, and tell the Council immediately if it is asked to do something infringing the GDPR.
- 16.9. Nothing in the Contract relieves the Data Processors of their own direct responsibilities under the GDPR.
- 16.10. The Supplier shall comply with the provisions of the GDPR and will indemnify the Council against all actions costs expenses claims proceedings and demands which may be made or brought against the Council for breach of statutory duty which arises from the use of disclosure or transfer of Personal Data by the Supplier.

Where the Provider identifies or suspects that someone may be engaged in illegal terrorist related activity, the Provider must refer such person or activity to the police.
- 17.5. The Supplier shall allow persons nominated by the Council access to all management records and documents in the possession of the Supplier in connection with the performance of the Contract, including all accounting records and financial information in the possession, custody or control of the Supplier or the Supplier's auditors
- 17.6. Where the Contract requires the Supplier to make payments or collect income on behalf of the Council, the Director of Finance (or equivalent) rights of audit shall be reserved as if the Supplier was an employee of the Council
- 17.7. The Supplier shall not be entitled to assign the Contract or any part of it or sub-contract any of its obligations without the Council's prior written consent.
- 17.8. The Council reserves the right to defer the date of delivery or payment or to cancel the Contract or reduce the Services ordered if the Council is prevented from or delayed in the carrying on the project or business for which the Services are required due to circumstances beyond the Council's reasonable control.
- 17.9. Any waiver by the Council of any breach of, or default under, the Contract by the Supplier shall not be considered as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the Contract.
- 17.10. Failure or delay by the Council in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision of the Contract shall not be construed as a waiver of any of the Council's rights under the Contract.
- 17.11. If any provision of the Contract is held by any competent authority to be invalid, void, voidable, unenforceable or unreasonable in whole or in part the validity of the other provisions of the Contract and the remainder of the provision in question shall continue in full force and effect.
- 17.12. The Contract shall be subject to English Law in all respects (including formation) and shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with English Law and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of England.
- 17.13. This document supercedes all prior agreements of whatever nature and prevails over any other terms and conditions including but not limited to any standard conditions printed and/or contained on any invoice or quotation submitted by the Supplier.
18. FORCE MAJEURE
- 18.1. If a Force Majeure event (as described in clause 18.2) arises on or following the date of the Contract which directly causes the Supplier to be materially unable to comply with any of its obligations hereunder, the Supplier and the Council may agree such terms as are appropriate for the continued performance of the Contract. If no such terms are agreed within one month of the commencement of the said event, and such event is continuing or its consequence remains such that the Supplier is materially unable to comply with its obligations, the parties hereby agree that the Contract shall thereupon terminate, subject to the provisions of Clause 13 (Termination). Failure by the Supplier to comply with its contractual obligations by reason of a Force Majeure event shall not constitute a breach of contract.
- 18.2. The events which are to be classified as Force Majeure events shall include each of the following:
- 18.2.1. war, civil war, conflict or terrorist attack arising within and affecting the United Kingdom;
- 18.2.2. nuclear, chemical or biological contamination of the Supplier's property arising from any of the events at (a) above;
- 18.2.3. riot, flood or earthquake;
- 18.2.4. pressure waves caused by aircraft or other aerial devices travelling at sonic or supersonic speeds; or
