

Brighton & Hove is one of the most cultural cities in Europe. Oozing creativity and cultural kudos from every pore, Brighton & Hove entertainment offers a hot bed of festivals, galleries, museums, film, night life, comedy and theatre.

Cultural Brighton & Hove

The cultural offer in and around the city is outstanding. The fusion of the arts, heritage, architecture and events and festivals makes it a top UK destination.

Located on the south coast Brighton & Hove's blue flag gold standard beach front attracts global visitors.

The natural beauty of the South Downs National Park surrounds the north of the city making it easily accessible for walking, cycling and paragliding. Glyndebourne, a world class opera house is just over 12 miles away, near the historical market town of Lewes.

The city has a rich and colourful past which is reflected through its heritage and architecture. The iconic Royal Pavilion and Dome denote the Regency period; whilst the Brighton Palace Pier offers a traditional seaside experience, and has done since the 1900's.

The futuristic i360 creates the millennium experience as the world's tallest vertical pier offering panoramic views across land and sea.

The retail experience combines traditional retail chains alongside a vibrant collection of independent shops, cafes, bars and restaurants in the famous North Laine and The Lanes.

Brighton & Hove is proud to host the UK's biggest Pride Festival and the Brighton Festival of performing arts which has been held in the city for 50 years and boasts the biggest fringe festival in England.

The city's Premier League football team, Brighton & Hove Albion is based at the state-of-the-art Amex Stadium just outside the city. The city also hosts the second-largest Marathon in the UK and eighth largest in Europe.
